ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number	Nature of Noncompliance
1.	The defendant shall refrain from the excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician.

Daniel Collins tested positive for marijuana on December 3, 2013.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Daniel Collins was released to supervision on September 11, 2013. He was diagnosed with bi-polar disorder with severe depression prior to incarceration for the instant offense. He is scheduled to receive services for his mental health issues from the Mental Health Cooperative facility in Dickson, Tennessee. Mr. Collins admitted using marijuana to the probation officer prior to submitting the positive urine screen on December 3, 2013. Mr. Collins was admonished for his actions, and he indicated his willingness to participate in treatment. He will be referred to Centerstone for a substance abuse assessment and any recommended treatment. Mr. Collins is currently unemployed and resides with his sister in Charlotte, Tennessee.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

The U.S. Probation Office is not requesting that any action be taken at this time. Mr. Collins will be required to submit to a substance abuse assessment to be followed by any recommended treatment. Random urine screens will also continue.

This case has been discussed with Assistant U.S. Attorney Jimmie Lynn Ramsaur, who agrees with the probation officer's recommendation.
